“ My dear sister I will always remember our times together from going to yard sales to flea markets to going fishing. It seem tlike u always got the biggest one,then times we wouldn't catch nothing but we love to fish. The times we sat on your porch and talk about the good times and bad. We fought like cats and dogs when we were younger, but no one else better say anything bad about one of us the other would let them know quick. The most important thing we talked about I promise I will see it get done. RIP SIS, MAC

“ She was a really sweet woman. My father and Mr. Frank served in the armed forces together for many years. She was a face we came to know and love along with their children. Words cannot express how truly sorry I am for her loss.
