Lisa Yates

Lisa Yates was known as mom, Le, and Aunt LeLe, to her family. She leaves a legacy of love to her children who were truly the ultimate treasure that completed her existence. She was honored to have a grandson, Theodore, who she always referred to as her “sweet baby” and she was “Noni” to Theodore.

Lisa’s greatest accomplishment in life was raising her three beautiful children. In addition to her children, she adored her daughter in law, Lauren, and her pride and joy grandson, Theodore. Her family had a huge impact on her life. Lisa enjoyed watching movies, shopping with her daughter, Madalyn, and helping her prepare for her photo shoots. Often, they would stay up late at night to make sure she had everything she needed to have a successful shoot. Her other greatest joy was when her son, Tyler, told her she was going to be a grandmother. She was overcome with joy and couldn’t wait to see her sweet grandbaby. Another treasured memory is when she told her son, Dylan, how proud of him she was when he told her he had been accepted into Tulane University to pursue a career in medicine.

Lisa loved spending time with her mama reminiscing about when she was a child. Lisa often reflected on her childhood memories growing up. Lisa loved being part of a big family. Her family meant everything to her.

Lisa is survived by her daughter, Madalyn Yates; sons, Tyler Giardelli (Lauren) and Dylan Yates; Only grandson, Theodore Giardelli; mother, Sandra Adams; brother, Tony Hines; sisters, Teresa Crayton and husband, Rip from Hammond, LA; René Gosnell and husband, Mark from Lafayette, LA; Sherry Breeland and husband, Warren from Sumrall, MS; as well as numerous nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

“ There isn't enough paper on earth to hold the memories of our friendship. From our heart to heart talks to the trouble we always seemed to find; my life is filled with memories of you. I will forever love and miss you.

“ I have so many very fond memories growing up with Lisa. I often reminisce about our childhood and growing up together, all of us cousins. We were certainly a tribe and I love all the precious memories. I'm heartbroken that her life was cut so short, and I'm so sorry for the heartbreak you're all feeling right now.
