slipped away into the next breath. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived as finally together is unaltered, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. What so forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, walk, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere near you. Don't mind the sunset. All is well.

“ Mrs, Lonnie was such a wonderful lady! She worked at the daycare where my son went. After I was pregnant with my 2nd son, I asked if she would come work for me as the boy's nanny. She did, and for the first six months of my babies life, she took care of Brad and Tony! She was awesome! She would do my laundry and usually had supper cooked when I got home. After a few weeks, she asked if she could take them to her house or to visit her mother at the nursing home. She and Mr. Ernest loved my children as if they were their own! She eventually had to stop working for me to devote more time to her mother. I will always cherish her and the time she gave so selflessly to me and my family. My condolences to her loved ones.
