“ All the great summers together was always looked forward to as a child. The cat head biscuits you always asked me to make for you after I was grown that you always showed up to eat them all. The guitar picking and singing with mom we heard as kids late in the evening. Our first night out together dancing and you wanting to go home but I insisted on staying. You slipped off to the car in the deep winter with snow on the ground and when the fun was over I found you there. Aunt BayBay was so mad at me when I got you home. You got sick with phenomenon and was out of work for a week. that only made Her even more upset. We never got anther night out after that. What great memories that I'll always hold dear to my heart. You and my dad showed what real men was like. Gentle, kind, caring and always was there for your family. None of us are perfect but you loved us no matter what and we loved you the same.

I remember The stories I've heard you tell that made a late night porch full of peoples laughter echo threw out the night. Threw the years from my childhood to adulthood you was around. You truly have made a difference in my life. You will be sincerely missed.

“ *The tide recedes but leaves behind bright sea shells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains.
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.
Uncle Bubba you will be greatly missed, please give aunt BaBa
a big hug for me and tell her I love her and miss her too!!!! RIP*

“ I have happy memories of times spent together...some really great summers..you took me water skiing for the very first time. But most of all...I remember you and your guitar and in particular a time in your kitchen on the hill...a family sing along! All those old country songs that will always make me think of you. That time in your kitchen was one of those magical family moments that will never go away because I hold it in my heart. I was awed and amazed and my Mom LOVED singing when you played. Delta Dawn...Running Bear and Little White Dove, Tommy and Laura, Charlie Pride, Jim Ed Brown. You will be missed Uncle Bubba.

“ As the tears fall I think about how you never left me out. You excepted me as your granddaughter and I felt you loved me as that. I will never forget the way you looked the first time you held Emory and how I felt to see that same love. One thing is for certain n that is you had a very big heart and it didn't go unnoticed. We will miss u papaw!
