“ For some reason, she was in my thoughts almost all day on Monday. Perhaps she was saying good bye. I won't be able to attend the funeral, but if I were, I'd certainly be barefoot in her honor at the after funeral gathering just as I remember her kicking off her shoes at most reunions. Aunt 'Cille was one of the major influences in my life. She will be missed.

“ *So many memories growing up with such a wonderful lady...my mother's first cousin... now they can laugh and sing and worship in Heaven together ... the Wall Reunions... I think I take after her when it comes to "being barefoot"... yes, she never wore shoes (if she could get by with it"...)
Clyde, Drew and Ray, I feel your lost and yet I know you rejoice in her new life...love all of you... Faye*

“ There are so many words that describe this wonderful lady. She wasn't only a teacher, she loved each and everyone of students and she made sure that they knew it. If I had to choose that one word it would be....AWESOME.

“ I do not even know where to begin.....I think every little girl loves her 1st grade teacher and Lord knows, I loved "Mrs. Stevens!" She was a natural as a teacher and she knew how to mix learning with the proper amount of discipline. She literally set the foundation for me as a student and "made" me want to learn and do well. I loved her. Ray and family, I am so sorry for your loss but I feel so blessed to have had her in my life. All I can say at this point is that although she may be gone from here on earth, she will never be forgotten by so many whose lives she touched. Sharon Dixon Lemieux

“ I have wonderful memories of having Mrs. Cille as a home health patient a few years ago. She loved life and loved her family, which she spoke of with such love during our visits. She also spoke often of the book she was writing for her family. May God bless her and all of her family.
with love,

“ Ms. Lucille was so fun and such a joy to be around. She kept our homemakers group alive and fun. She always won door prizes at our group and was so happy to get each one. If there was a door prize offered in heaven I'm sure she won. She shared stories of her younger days when she was a clown at the nursing home. She was loved my so many. I'm sure Ms. Lucille and Ms. Eliva are having fun in heaven.
