“ I'll never forget the way Mama laughed. I'll remember her love for Christmas. Or the lives that she touched along the way. Her love for Spring with every new bud I see. Or the joy it gave her to hear a bird sing. Or the tears she held back when it was time for us to leave. Mama singing Beautiful Dreamer, a cup of coffee with me. I miss you mama.

“ My mom was the absolute best. I was so blessed to have had her not only as my mom but also as one of my best friends. She was always willing to help people, even strangers, and I have so many memories of her blessing others. She was an amazing cook that could whip up a feast out of pretty much anything. She always made Christmas a magical time and it was not unusual for her to have her tree up and decorated as early as late August. Mom made friends everywhere that she went. She made sure that we knew God and we would often spend hours drinking coffee and discussing the Bible. She was such a special lady. I could go on and on about the virtues of my beautiful mom. Although the world will be a darker place without her in it, Heaven has gain a special angel. I love you so much mom!!!! Always.
