

Lucy Nicolosi Monistere

October 17, 1925 - July 3, 2014

Our sweet and beloved Mother, Lucy Nicolosi Monistere, born in Hammond, LA on 10/17/1925, died peacefully in the arms of God in Humble, TX on 7/3/2014.

She was married to Dominic Monistere in 1941, and until his death in 2008, they lived a life filled with joy, traveling the world and visiting with their extended family as often as possible. Lucy carried on the traditions of her Mother and those before her. A great cook who loved baking – Italian cookies most of all - handy with her crochet needles, a giving volunteer at the Kenner Regional Hospital, and the perfect grandma to her multitude of grandchildren and great grandchildren. They all called her Grandma Dolce, Italian for “sweet”. As an avid church-goer, she was an outstanding member of the choir at St. Charles Borromeo in St. Rose, LA. She loved the music she grew up with, and would sing along with her Dean Martin records as she busied herself keeping house and home for her family.

Lucy is survived by her four children – Josie, Sal, Mary Lu, and Steve. Surviving siblings include 3 sisters – Maggie, Fennie, and Rosie. Lucy also leaves her love to 11 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and a great-great grandchild – a special extended family brings four more great-grandchildren. Lucy spent much of her final time here on earth missing and reminiscing about her late husband Dom. Happily, they are finally together once again, and now share memories of a lifetime of love for their family, and an immeasurable love for each other.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the visitation at Holy Ghost Catholic Church, Hammond, on Wednesday, July 9, 2014 from 10 a.m. until Funeral Mass begins at 12 p.m. Fr. Robert Merced will officiate. Interment will take place in Rose Memorial Park Cemetery, Hammond.

Rest well, Grandma Dolce. You've touched many lives, and we all love you.
