“ Lynda and I have been friends since we were little girls. We grew up together living on the same street. She was my BEST friend. We would build a tent over her Mothers outdoor clothes line and would play all day in it. We loved digging for night crawlers under the Azalea bushes and picking plums and pears in my grandmothers yard. I have so many great memories of our childhood. We stayed close friends throughout the years. When we both married our husbands (Ronald and Bret) we always had fun times. We would go bowling when our children (Jeremy, Crystal and Bret Jr.) were little. We figured out quick that if we fed our kids junk food the whole time they stayed happy while we finish our game. Lol. We had lots of bbq’s together and even water fights. lol. Lynda and I would talk on the phone for hours not realizing at times three hours had past. I’m going to miss my “life long friend”. Rest in peace my friend. I love you!
