

Lynda Stegall

September 29, 1944 - September 22, 2017

Lynda, age 72, went to her heavenly home on Friday, September 22, 2017 after a courageous battle with cancer. In the 1960's, Lynda was a professional hair stylist, who took great pride in her work. Afterwards she joined Morrison Cafeteria, Piccadilly Cafeteria, and Ryan's Steak House as their official 'Baker', daily preparing homemade breads and dessert that customers loved to eat. Her most recent working position was for the last 11 years, she and her husband Randy founded and served at the Tangi Humane Society. She was a wonderful wife, mother and grand and great-grandmother, who is already missed dearly. Lynda loved cooking lots of food for her family and dear friends, also making many precious memories with them to keep forever. Lynda enjoyed feeding anyone who would let her, and they never left without one of her many hugs, that were always free. She truly was, 'Mama' to everybody.

Lynda leaves behind her husband, Randy Stegall; daughters, Melissa Thomas Collins (son-in-law, Lawrence) and Christi Lear (son-in-law, Bryant); grandchildren, T.C. Thomas, Paul Thomisee, Cameron Lear, Victorian Lear, Cooper Lear; as well as her great-grandchildren, Titus Thomas, Aliyah Thomas and Ace Thomas.

Preceding her in death were her son, David Wade Thomas; sister, Sandra Ashbaugh; and her parents, Dr. Aaron Presely Seamster and Quentin Seamster.

In lieu of flowers, family request donations be made to the Tangi Humane

Society, 46219 River Road, Hammond, LA. 70401

“ The lady was an angel here on earth, not only to people but to her beloved dogs, that she has loved over the years. The world has suffered a great loss in losing Linda, but she is helping the angels at Rainbow Bridge with all the dogs waiting for their masters. She will truly be missed. I admired her and her commitment to all the animals.

“ Lynda was one of the most kind hearted, genuine people I have ever known. Her love for helping people and animals was incomparable. I know she is up there with Debbie caring for the dogs that went to the Rainbow Bridge. She was a true "Momma." Gonna miss you, love.

“ There is a big celebration going on at the Rainbow Bridge! Rest in peace.

But never yet the dog our country fed, Betrayed the kindness or forgot the bread. ---Edward Lytton Bulwer

“ My dearest friend...my sister at heart... I will miss your sweet smile and contagious laughter. You have always been such a wonderful friend...our nightly conversations online will be missed so much. My heart is broken knowing that you won't be around to hug and talk to anymore. You were like a magnet that drew people to you with your kindness. And such a huge heart that you had, you were always so giving. I know that you are running and playing with all the animals that crossed Rainbow Bridge. You are a more beautiful Angel now, watching over us all at THS from up above. Rest in Peace now, my friend. We will meet again one day... I love you bunches!
