“ Malcolm was a kind, big-hearted, happy man that would try and fix anything. He came to my rescue many times and I will be forever grateful. He loved his music but, most importantly he loved his family and friends. I couldn't have asked for anyone to love my daughter anymore than he did. Mac, finally got to the place he often talked about. I'm sure he's singing to the angels on those streets of gold. Love you Mac!

“ So sorry for your loss. He was a great friend. I remember the many days we worked together. As we were going to work, he was always so happy and always singing. We stop in morning and get biscuits and in evening it was big mama sausage and coke. He will be truly missed. Prayers for family and friends.
