“ Aunt Jane was truly one of a kind, she loved her family and I believe since her and Uncle Earl did not have any children of their own, that when our children came along the kids became their life. If she wasn't talking about all the places her and Uncle Earl had been too she was talking about the grand kids.

Aunt Jane took the place of my mother in law since Bertie had passed away a year before Sammy and I got married . So she was to me not just an aunt but I considered her my mother in law. I am truly going to miss her but I also know she fought a battle and as much as she wanted to live her body just gave out, I am so thankful that she was able to stay in her home because that is where she wanted to be. and I am thankful that Sadie, Paul, Samantha, Becky, Mia and Harrison will always have good memories of a grandmother who loved them dearly.
