

Margaret Rose Broussard Campbell

February 21, 1961 - May 12, 2026

Margaret Rose Broussard Campbell passed away on Tuesday, May 12, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend whose life was centered around the people she loved most.

Margaret was the beloved wife of Jeffrey Campbell. Together, they built a life filled with love, travel, and cherished memories. She was a proud and loving mother to Buck Pepitone (Jessica), Jana Mayes (Kaleb), Mary Risey (Jared), and Sarah Pepitone (Chad). She was a devoted grandmother to Kaden Mayes, Ava Mayes, and Campbell Risey, and a cherished great-grandmother to Rhett Starkey. Her grandchildren brought her immense joy, and she treasured every moment spent with them. Margaret is also survived by her sisters, Anita Tyree and Lynn Pangle (Eric), and her brother, Farrell Malone. She was preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Rose Broussard, who were the greatest influence in her life and helped shape the strong, caring woman she became.

Margaret found her greatest happiness in caring for her family. She was known as the heart of her family—a constant source of love, strength, and support. She also enjoyed traveling both domestically and internationally with her husband, creating lasting memories along the way. Among her favorite experiences were visiting the Palace of Versailles near Paris and traveling to Egypt, where she explored its historic landmarks. Those who knew Margaret will remember her for her warmth, her selflessness, and her unwavering devotion to her family. Her legacy of love and care will live on through the generations she so deeply cherished.

Family and friends are invited to an Afternoon of Remembrance on Friday, May 22, 2026, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Tope La Banquet Room, 113 East Thomas Street, Hammond, LA 70401. Casual dress attire preferred. Margaret will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who were blessed to know and love her.
