“ All of us who came to know and love Margie through our affiliation with the OPAO were nourished and blessed by her friendship. She was truly one of the kindest, most supportive people with which God ever graced the earth, and we will miss her dearly. Our comfort, and hopefully her family's, is in knowing that she is finally in God's heavenly, eternal kingdom.##imported-begin##Coleen Clark##imported-end##

“ Dear Family Members, I got to know Ms. Margie as I visited Gordon and the other employees at Tangi Parish Council. She was so sweet to me and always had such a great sunshine smile. Will miss her. She's truly one of the kindest persons I've ever meet as I still travel throughout Louisiana. The Lord has welcomed her into His Kingdom and probably put her in charge of something up there in heaven. She's the best. Love to you all.##imported-begin##Karl Allen##imported-end##

“ Margie was a cousin and close friend as we grew up together. We played together as often as we could. I remember that she loved puppies and would let them lick her in the face. (I could never bring myself to do that.) She was a beautiful person, both inside and outside. I remember her wonderful smile and her great love of life. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Susan C. “ Dave, Kacie, and family:
We were saddened to hear about Margie's passing. She was a bright light in the Parish Council office. We called on her often for information or just to clarify details about an upcoming event. She was always willing to go the extra mile to help someone. She was always so kind, so caring, always smiling that beautiful smile of hers. We will remember her fondly. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Bonnie Conner##imported-end##

“ Dave and family,
So sorry to hear about Margie's passing. I am Kevin Wilkinson's mother, I used to wait on Margie at AmSouth Bank. I have moved and have lost touch with a lot of people, as I did not know that Margie was ill. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers as only God can give you comfort in these times.
