“ We sure will miss our Aunt Margie. Family was very important to her and she always made sure we got together. Whether it was a Christmas get together, crawfish boil every April or Saturdays at her old home place we enjoyed being with her. She always made you feel special. She is whole now and happy ! Love you always !

“ I called her maw-maw bc she was just that to me. Always made me feel loved and put a smile on my face. I got to see her not to long ago and it broke my heart to see a wonderful person have to face that. It brought back all the wonderful memories and she will forever be in my heart. My deepest condolences and sympathy go to my dearest friend Lacy Ard. I'm hear if you need me and I'm so very sorry for your loss. She is where she can be your guardian angel and her old self again surrounded by her loved ones who have been waiting. I love you maw maw Margie and I love you Lacey.

“ To know her was to love her 🙌 She will be missed 😭 Thankful that she is whole again 🙏🙏 I'll forever be grateful for everything that she did for me after my Beauty Shop burned. Ms Margie opened her home and made me a space to do hair until I could get my new shop ready 💕 The love and wisdom that Ms Margie Averett and Ms Gloria Ridgedell gave me through the years helped me become the strong woman I am today 🤗
