“ More than just a best friend, Marie was the heart of the home we shared for the past five years. She was the person I navigated life with, from the quiet morning coffees to the late-night laughs. Her absence leaves a void in our home and in my heart that can never be filled. I will miss her presence every single day, but I carry the joy of our friendship with me forever. ”
Love you Marie!!

“ Her smile and THAT laugh..... There was nothing like seeing Marie get tickled at well anything. I'm so grateful that I am unable to count the times we just sat and laughed about something silly or a show, or oh who knows what! It might not have been often seen but when she was truly humoured, the happy just poured out. And those times I will always cherish. I cherished them then too for different reasons. I hope we all have a piece of that part of Marie. I love you. Until we meet again.....

So very sorry for your loss, Roxanne. May Marie be in eternal peace, in the loving arms of her mom, Fran, whom she missed so terribly. 🙏
