“ Marissa Morris and I had been together a short time. But with in the time we were together I gave her what she wanted to make her feel loved and comfortable. She was well out spoken and energetic. She brought out the best in me and made me feel whole. We got engaged on December 15th 2019 at grande finale. We also just starting a family as well. When she was diagnosed with leukemia she asked me if I was going to stay with her. I told her yes I would and that I wouldn't go anywhere. After we got done with the chemotherapy we headed home to spend time with family. On monday night she was readmitted to the hospital where I spent everyday with her until it was time to let her go home to be with her family and our child. I stood strong and firm beside her and didnt leave her. I'm proud of you Marissa. I will always love you. You taken a big impact on my heart. Jasmine and I love you so much. Take care of our baby in heaven and I will see you one day when it's my time to come.

Marissa you came into our life through Fireworks working with us and became a daughter to me. You always called me just to talk or ask a question, and always called me paw paw. I will miss you more than I can say. Love You and we will see each other again in Heaven.
