

Mary 'Boots' Hutchinson Wagner

July 3, 1941 - December 1, 2021

Boots, age 80, went to her heavenly home on Wednesday, December 1, 2021. Outside her home, she worked for the Louisiana Department of Health, where she ultimately retired. Jesus and her family were Boots' passion in life. She wouldn't hesitate to share the Gospel with whomever she came in contact with. For many years she led children's ministry and also adult Sunday school. She loved spending time outside doing yardwork, she outfished most men, and inside you'd often find her cooking up something special for the family or sitting down at her table writing a personal card or a poem to everyone. Boots was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend who is already dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Boots is survived by her daughters, Charlene Hoyt (Joey), Lurlene Stratton (Ben); son, Charles W. Wagner, Jr. (Shelly); son-in-law, David Hill; grandchildren, Mandy Duncan, Laramie Hill, Cory Wagner, Shelly Wayne Hill, Lacey Whitehead, Benjamin Stratton; great-grandchildren, Laniey Hoyt, Baylor Duncan, Dilyn, Ethan, Charleigh Grace Hill, Chloe and Cole Hill, Ashton, Weston and Eli Wagner, Gracie and Brody Whitehead, Paisley Stratton; great great-grandchildren, Kaston, and Lacelynn Howes; sisters, Ida Mae Stafford, Arlene Hano, and Wanda Colkmire; brother, John P. Hutchinson; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Boots is preceded in death by her loving husband, Charles Wagner, Sr.;

parents, Shelly and Millie Blount Hutchinson; daughter, Sherry Hill; great-granddaughter, Shayna Stratton; grandson, Lil Joey Hoyt; siblings, Irene and Larry Hutchinson.

“ RIP Aunt Boots, I know for sure your with Sherry and Uncle Charles and your mom and dad . I hope y'all are helping God watch over us down here. I can't wait to be there too. But God's still working on me. I love you and the last time I saw you was several months ago and that's the way I want to remember you. We sat in your living room and talked about how I use to hear you say Girls keep it down in there and go to sleep. Just don't seem real. Thanks for all you did for me growing up. Oh and the popcorn at the movies in Albany .

“ I will never forget this lady and what she brought into my life, She was a one-of-a-kind woman with a heart after God, and I had the pleasure of calling her Aunt Boots. What treasures she must have been handed in heaven and laid at Jesus' feet, She has left a legacy that will be lasting for generations to come. Many names are on her list of those who came to know Jesus by her. This woman from Albany loved, lived and sure laughed. See you later Aunt Boots and I know you are so happy and beautiful now and probably laughing with Jesus with Sherry and Lil Joey, Uncle Charles, and all who you met up yonder. God be with the girls Charlene, Lurlene, and Junior your son as we wait our turn and our race is finished may we finish even half as well as you. I love you forever.
