“ I will always appreciate Mary more than she will ever know. She and Mitch did a great job parenting. She brought Devin into our lives and he has been essential to my daughter and grandson's happiness. I hope she knows Devin is as much a part of my family as hers and he will be loved and cared for in her absence. Thank you, Mary, for making my family complete. You will be missed.

“ My memory of Mary is of a young wife & mother who spoke joyfully of her husband and young children.
Mary was the glue of our New Orleans office. She was the smart, knowledgeable, personable, lively, and pretty young colleague who helped all of us.
May she rest eternally in God's arms.
Heartfelt condolences to her family, friends, and all who loved her.
