“ Maw Maw Pickle was the grandma I never had. She was such an honest, genuine, and giving person. She never judged and always helped anyone who needed it. I can't think of a person who comes close to comparison to this amazing lady accept for of course Paw Paw Bobby. What a powerful couple they were. I have never heard anyone say one bad thing about her (or him). Maw Maw Pickle, you always made me feel like I was a part of your family from the first day I met you and I thank you for that. I will miss you dearly and I hope you and Paw Paw Bobby are looking down on everyone smiling at what an amazing job y'all did on this planet. Y'all left an impact on anyone and everyone you ever came in contact with. I love and miss you both. Thank you for the wonderful 20 years of amazing memories I will never forget.

“ I have so many childhood memories of Aunt Frances. Especially the trips to the roller rink and the sleepovers with Cindy and Bobbie Lynn. I remember that kitchen. I remember Aunt Frances cooking beans on the stove with pork chops on the side. I remember us girls mopping that kitchen floor! Several years ago, my grandson and I ran into Aunt Frances and one of her granddaughters and a friend at Baskin Robbins. We sat together and chatted and I asked what they had planned for the day. “Well, Barbara Ann, I am about to drop these girls at the skating rink.” I smiled as I remembered all of the skating rink drop-offs she did with “the girls” (Cindy, Bobbi Lynn, me and Toni) from long ago. I think my mom and Aunt Frances would take turns chaufferring us. A whole new generation of “the girls” sat at the table with us that day along with the same sweet Aunt Frances headed to drop them off at the rink.

What a beautiful remembrance. And I sure remember the Saturday “clean up days”! She loved every minute of making sure everyone made it to the skating rink also!

Michelle, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how much you and Aubree adored Maw Maw Pickle. If you ever need to talk I am, and always be here for you and Aubree. I'm glad to see this pic posted bc I didn't see one in the video. It's a beautiful picture of the two of you. I'm sorry I couldn't make the funeral. There isn't a day that goes by I don't think of her and Bobby. I will say this, they are two of the nicest, most genuine people I have ever met in my lifetime. I know her and Paw Paw Bobby are looking down on you and Aubree. You two have two of the best guardian angels anyone could possibly have. Keep your head up kiddo and be the best mommy you can be just like Maw Maw Pickle was for you.
