“ *Jim, Chris, and Geoff,
I am so sorry. From the time I first met Mary Lou when we were young moms in CCHills, she was the most generous, open, positive, enthusiastic, talented woman and remained that way through her lifetime. She was always so busy with all kinds of projects, but never too busy for a friend. She was a wonderful daughter, wife, Mom, and Grandma..She was so proud of her whole family. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I know you have lots of beautiful memories to comfort you at this time.*

“ *Jim,
No words can describe the loss you feel with the passing of your soul mate, but they can in a quiet way reflect the love that others have for your precious wife. Mary Lou could very well have been named Grace for this is what she extended to others even as she struggled under harsh circumstances. I pray that God's Blessings be extended to you and your family. Yours in Christian fellowship,
Jim Perrin*

“ Rest in peace, sweet lady. I didn't know you but any friend of Liz Higgins has to be a wonderful person. I heard so much about you from Liz. She always enjoyed the chats at the ballgames and you never missed a game. You will be missed.

“ I was not a close friend of Mary Lou's but we met through our mutual enjoyment of quilting and shared time for the last several years at week-long quilting retreats at St. Jseph's Abbey.. Needless to say (to all who knew her at all) she was always pleasant. But more than that; she was always upbeat and a great one to just chat it up for a few minutes as I walked around seeing everyone's beautiful work. She participated fully and made a pleasant and cheery event more pleasant - all the while she had to use one hand and arm to hold her own head up. I never got the story of what happened to cause Mary Lou to have this painful condition in her neck that robbed it of the strength needed to hold her head as she chose, but it did not stop her nor make her lose her kind and open disposition. Many there knew her better than I did and can share much more intimate stories but she taught me a great deal about attitude and acceptance just by being there . Each time I looked up from my machine I saw a happy woman who was making the very best she could of the very difficult situation she had. She was an inspiration to me.

Thank you Carolyn! As others have you have explained her struggle and strength! In short she had Tardive Distonia, it affected her ability to tell her neck muscles what to do. My understanding is that it can affect different parts of the body but hers happened to be her neck. She looked forward to the retreat every year and couldn't wait to see you all and have great time. She loved to teach her craft also! Thank you so much for your comments! Geoff

“ Jim, Chris and Geoff, our hearts our with you in your loss. Mary Lou was such a wonderful Godmother to me. Always, caring and supportive. I will miss her deeply. I know there is great joy in heaven at her arrival to be with Christ, but the world is certainly dimmer without her here to continue to share her love with all of us. With love, Jim “Mary Lou’s very special friendship and memories will always be in my heart. Her joy and laughter crossed the geographic distances between us. Mary Lou is a life long best friend.

We grew up together, sharing special trips, music and our hobby of sewing. I remember learning how to swim in a pool at a ranch in Colorado with Lou and her parents. We performed a song one night there - her on the piano and me on the guitar. During summers we would each sew a variety of clothing. We frequently visited the remanent shop on Roosevelt Road, choosing treasured pieces of fabric that we transformed into special clothes. We were in Girl Scouts together and went to summer camp together..

Some of my most joyous memories of Mary Lou is her incredible talent as a pianist. She would play Gershwin’s “Rhapsody in Blue” and “An American in Paris” for me, allowing me to be present in her living room while she practiced. She created in me the love of this music, and many times when I hear it on the radio I text her to tell her thank you for developing this love of music.

Mary Lou, your amazing love for all of us brought us so much joy and at times, needed comfort.

Please continue to spread your wings around all of us. We will always know and share your presence.

Jim, I am thinking about your and sending special wishes and comfort.

Chris and Geof, and everyone in your families I am sending wishes of comfort.

The Rhapsody of your life plays on in us.....

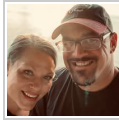

*Love Forever,
Joanie*
