

Mary LaJean Shaver

January 26, 1929 - April 16, 2023

Mary joined her husband in Heaven on Sunday, April 16, 2023, at the young age of 94. She was a resident of Hammond, LA. Mary dedicated many years to the education system until she retired. She enjoyed watching sports on TV, planting springtime flowers, and in her later years mastered word search puzzles. Mary was fiercely proud and protective of her family and would tell everyone she could about them. She devoted herself to her family and was most happy surrounded by those she loved. Mary was so full of life, she filled every waking moment with singing, whistling, or conversation. Mary believed in making the most out of everything. She truly was a wonderful wife, loving mother, and the grandmother you always hoped for. Mary will forever be missed.

She is survived by one daughter; two sons; three grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Mary is preceded in death by her husband of 70 years, Gilbert Shaver; her parents; two siblings; and a granddaughter.

A cremation was held and services will be held by the family at a later date.

“ Sending good thoughts and prayers to all the family both in heaven above and on earth below. Aunt Mary was one of a kind, and our lives were all changed for having known her. I miss those family dinners in Iowa, sailing on the lakes, and the laughter. Much love from Brent and Jade Morain
