

Michael Cortez Hardy

June 30, 1988 - August 11, 2021

On June 30, 1988, a beautiful life came into being. Brother Michael Cortez Hardy who was born to the proud parents of Michael J. and Linda F. Hardy. He confessed Christ at an early age and united with Elizabeth Missionary Baptist Church. From the very beginning, he carved out his place by being a Missionary for Christ, a devotion leader, actively working with all auxiliaries and singing with the Male Chorus all over Montgomery, Alabama, and surrounding areas. Michael was a 2006 graduate of Jefferson Davis High School in Montgomery, Alabama. He also attended Alabama State University and later graduated Magna Cum Laude with highest honors in Computer Information Systems from Trenholm Technical College. He moved to a prepared place on Wednesday August 11, 2021. The world was unable to hold the wealth that filled his heart. His life reflects his greatest love for God, his wife, family, friends and music. He leaves to cherish his memories: a loving wife (Bianca L. Hardy) of Denham Springs, Louisiana, parents (Michael J. and Linda F. Hardy) of Montgomery, AL, one brother & Sister-in-law (Courtney and Tori Hardy) of Pelham, AL, a grandfather (Rev. James G. Hardy) of Eutaw, AL, a mother in law (Barbara Mitchell) of Montgomery, AL, a father in law (Rodney Stalling) of Montgomery, AL, a brother and sister in law (Arkino and Andrenia Mitchell) of Montgomery, AL. He also leaves five uncles, two aunts and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am remember the night when Mike n Sean chaffee met. That night mike was a troll on Sean's live, n Sean brought mike on his live n they talked crap to each other n then they hit it off like u wouldn't believe. Mike was a man of many words n wisdom. I luv his music. I am so sorry for your loss sending many prayers for the family n anyone else. R.I.P. Backwoodz mike mic..

Mikey Mic seemed to be that gentle soul that knew how to calm others with his kind thoughts and gestures! Bae I know you feel so lost, but draw strength from everyone in this time of sorrow!!! He will always be with never doubt that one minute!!! Prayers of peace and strength to you sweet one!!! Much love 💕💕
