“ Just found this page on line today. It is most difficult to say what one wants too in times of loss to those most close. Words are hard to come by and express how much Aunt Micky will be missed. Before Aunt Micky got so sick I only got to see her one time and think I was 18, at Aunt Willie Mae's house. Great Aunt Willie Mae so wanted us to meet, as I was so young the last time I had seen her before then. That being said Aunt Micky and I did hit it off pretty well. There were many times she and I talked over the phone after that and a big variety of subjects come to mind. The main thing I remember about our conversations is her comments about how we both had a knack for giving bold opinions to others, and how she had learned a few things the hard way as a result of it and I had better watch it as she saw some similar situations coming up for me as well. She was a straight talker, always enjoyed that about her. Mostly I just appreciated her being herself and for being so accepting and kind. Aunt Mick is one of a kind and I'll never forget her. She sure is going to be missed! Love and prayers for Uncle Tom and Dean.##imported-begin##Mimi Bynum-Johnson##imported-end##
