

Miranda Leigh Gleber-Wingate

August 30, 1987 - October 3, 2018

Miranda, age 31, passed away on Wednesday, October 3, 2018 surrounded by her loving family. She was a native of Loranger and a resident of Independence but would rather live in the big city. Miranda could usually be found drawing, joy riding in her vehicle while jamming out to her favorite music and thinking about how life will be or enjoying The Little Mermaid and other Disney Movies. She was known for her sense of humor, free spirit, wild heart and mind, but her love for daughter, Mia, was by far her biggest accomplishment, and everyone knew it. She is already missed deeply by all who knew her.

She leaves behind her daughter, Mia Wingate; father, Louis “Jake” Gleber and wife Tina; mother, Delores Reid; brother, Benjamin Gleber and wife Blaire; step-sisters, Brandi Leach, Kourtney Webre and Amanda Brown; Mia’s father, Jonathan Wingate; grandparents, Louis Gleber III and Veronica Gleber, Norwood Reid and Frances Reid; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins; as well as her companion, Anthony Scardina.

Preceding her in death are her grandparents, Louis and Juanita Gleber, Russell and Claudia Mays, AJ and Myrtle Reid.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the Celebration of Life Service on October 9th, 2018 at Little River United Pentecostal Church at 11:00 a.m. with visitation beginning at 9:00 a.m. Pastor Josh Payne and Pastor T. Lobell will officiate the services.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the funeral home by “ Babe I was so hoping to get in touch with you. I needed you to be here more than you know. I can't believe that you're gone. I miss you so very much and I love you dearly. I absolutely adored you from day one! Your smile will forever be etched in my mind. Thank you for always showing me such love and true friendship. I can honestly say that I've never met anyone like you. I know we'll together again someday, laughing and being silly. Rest now sweet sister. I love you always

“ There are no words a person can say that will bring closure to the loss of a loved one, especially a child. I remember Miranda as a little girl. Sweet and innocent.
