“ I don't remember the Meyers Family before Mona was a part of it. I especially remember as a teenager riding to Alabama with George and Mona for Julia's funeral. What a comfort Mona was to me then. I will always remember Mona.

“ Many memories of my Aunt Mona. She had a distinct voice and I can still hear her laugh. She showed me the proper way of pickin' strawberries when I was very young. So glad I got to sit down and have lunch with her last November. "Well, girl..." I know you are now walking the streets of gold and talking to my mother about those "Meyers boys".
