

Ms Elmer Moore Dixon

April 19, 1916 - November 23, 2008

Ms. Elmer “Monkey” Moore Dixon

She was a very special and loving aunt to her surviving nieces and nephews. Living the past 12 years in Albany, Aunt Monkey lived most of her life in Prairieville, La, where she was a member of the Eastern Star. Aunt Monkey was the blessed age of 92 when she passed away Sunday, November 23, 2008 at North Oaks Medical Center in Hammond.

Surviving Aunt Monkey are nieces, Kit Wittich and Mary Lee Arnaudet; nephew, Denny Moore; family caregivers were niece Susan Anthony and her husband Mark along with niece Helen Courtney. She was also survived by many other extended family members.

Aunt Monkey was married for 53 years to her late husband, Dudley Dixon. She was also preceded in death by her parents, Barney and Irene Kemp Moore; brothers, Sam Moore and Emery Moore; sisters, Florence Richardson and Mary Moore Gayle and one nephew, Cleveland Courtney, Sr. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral services from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond on Wednesday, November 26 at 12:00 noon with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. Rev. Marlin Arceneaux will officiate the services and interment will be in Mt. Zion Baptist Church Cemetery in Prairieville.

Condolences and other information available online at www.bgthompsonfuneralhome.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home of Hammond.

Tribute Wall

“ Sis. Susan, Bro. Mark, and Aunt Monkey's family,

I am so sorry for your loss of such a beautiful lady. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you for strength and comfort. God bless!##imported-begin##beverly ratcliff martin##imported-end##

November 30, 2008 at 06:37 AM

“ ##imported-begin##Tinita Blount##imported-end##

November 25, 2008 at 06:26 PM