

Nancy Carol Sturdivant

September 2, 1954 - May 5, 2020

Nancy Sturdivant, age 65, passed away on Tuesday, May 5th, 2020 at her home. She was born on September 2nd 1954 in Atlanta, Georgia to John Lester and Virginia (Carroll) Lester. She graduated from North Springs High school in 1973. She was a loving mother, and was well loved by many friends and family. She was a successful real estate agent and had a passion for animals and loved her dogs and cats. She enjoyed simple pleasures like spending time with her family and friends and loved hosting gatherings at her home in Husser, Louisiana. She was survived by her daughter Ellen Eubanks, son John Eubanks and grandson Logan. Also, she will also be greatly missed by her fiancé Andrew Peterzell, and his children, Eric and Genevive as well as his granddaughter A'Miya, who Nancy loved spending time with. Nancy was very proud to be a grandmother to A'Miya and her new grandson Logan. Nancy also had a surviving sister, Lynda Hampshire and has many other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly. Due to the current order by Gov. Edwards, the family is not able to invite the public to a visitation or funeral services as intended. Because of current restrictions the burial service will be available for viewing on Facebook Live. We do invite you to log on to Brandon G. Thompson's Facebook page and watch the live stream Wednesday, May 13, 2020 at 12 noon.

“ Nancy I love you and miss you. You had amazing soul and beautiful heart. I will never forget you and our friendship. I always will remember our talks, your smiles and our laughs. Going miss your good home cook meals. It's going to be tough with you not around. But I will carry you in my heart like always. Now your gone but never forgotten my sweet best beautiful friend. I know you in heaven watching over me and every one else. I love you so much. ❤️❤️❤️
