

Ned Albin Font

October 4, 1942 - July 19, 2009

Ned Albin Font

Age 66, a resident of Albany for the past 12 years, former resident of Holden for 30 years and a native of Baton Rouge, Ned passed away on Sunday, July 19, 2009 at North Oaks Medical Center. He was a former employee of Waste Management and a member of Doyle Baptist Church.

Ned spent his life enjoying many things which included, riding motorcycles, driving his 1948 mercury "Daisy", flying airplanes, driving 18 wheelers cross country and going on trailrides. Although he had many hobbies, his greatest joy was to be there for his family and friends and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. All it took was one phone call and he was there.

He is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Betty Ruth Font; two daughters and son-in-law, Deborah Font, Melissa Balfantz and husband Sean; son-in-law, Patrick Lamonica; granddaughters, Andilyn, Samantha, Ashleigh and Ashtyn; his faithful dog, Snoopy, along with his brothers, Pete Bankston, Billy Bankston and Edward Huff.

Preceding Ned in death were his mother, Murl Jordan Creel; father, George Font; brothers, George and Teddy Font and a sister, Geraldine Hicks.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral services from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond, on Tuesday, July 21, 2009 at 12 noon, with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. The services will be conducted by Rev. Carl Rushing and interment will follow in Gateway Gardens Memorial Park in Livingston.

Condolences and other information are available online at www.bgthompsonfuneralhome.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home of Hammond.
