“ It's been one month since she left us and I still miss her every day. There will forever be a hole in my heart where she was. I have so many wonderful memories of her and growing up with her love always surrounding me. I can't imagine life without her, but I know I don't have a choice. She was so much more than just an aunt to me. She was a constant driving force, my rock, my inspiration, the sweetest person I've ever know. She always thought about others before herself. I loved her cooking, her smiles, her hugs, and the way she loved me. My life will never be the same! Rest in peace Aunt Net, I will love you forever, and I can't wait to see you again!

Love you so much!
