“ Ms. Robbie,

This is Mary Beth. Many years ago, we worked together at SLU Lab School. You were always so kind to me. You took me under your wings, and yes, you are an angel. :) When I heard of your husband's passing, It grieved me. You and the family are in my thoughts and prayers. You're a strong woman. But God's is stronger. Draw close to Him and He will draw close to you. Take care, get plenty of rest, rely on the love and support offered by family and friends. With loving prayers being sent your way, know how sorry I am for your loss.

*In Christ,
Mary Beth*

“ Aunt Robbie,

I'm sending a virtual hug to you. I have lots of memories of Uncle Nick but music was a common theme. The last time I came to visit, he picked up a guitar and played Amazing Grace. I don't know if that was his absolute favorite hymn or not but it obviously had special meaning for him.. Uncle Nick also gave me my very first record....one from his own collection...back in the day. Thankfully, his musical tastes changed a bit over time, but every time I hear those old songs on the radio, that memory returns.

I can only imagine how many more times Erin heard it than I, but Uncle Nick made sure I knew he would be there for me when the boys were going to come into life's picture. Thankfully, for Erin and me both of our guys had enough common sense to heed his words of advice. With Grandpa's ideas and Uncle Nick's warrior strength, I might have still been single!

In short, Uncle Nick loved his family, his music, and above all else, Our Lord and Savior, with an intense passion and he was never afraid to let others know it. That is what I will continue to remember.

I'm sorry I can't be there with the family now, but I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. Love you.
