

Nina Gill

April 10, 1924 - August 8, 2008

Nina Wilkinson Gill The love and kindness she had for her family and friends were evident in everything she did. At the blessed age of 84 and a native of Amite County, Mississippi, Nina passed away Friday, August 8, 2008 at her residence in Hammond. After retiring from the Hammond Developmental Center, she found great satisfaction in sitting with the elderly. Nina loved gardening and tending to her flowers. She was known for her contagious laugh, always telling stories to anyone who would listen. Nina attended First Baptist Church in Independence. She is survived by two devoted daughters, Faye Woods and her husband, William of Woodville, Mississippi and Evelyn Uli of Hammond, Louisiana. Also surviving her are three supporting sons, Gene Halford and wife, Sunji of Texas, Kenneth Callender and wife, Mary Ann of Rockdale, Texas and Bobby Callender and wife Shelley of Tickfaw, Louisiana. She leaves behind one sister, Helen Wilkinson of Mississippi and brother, Ben Wilkinson and wife, Sue of Brookhaven, Mississippi, fourteen grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Nina and her late husband, Hewlett Gill lost their 19 year old son, Calvin Douglas Halford during his line of duty while serving in the Vietnam War. Her parents also preceded her in death. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral services from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond on Tuesday, August 12th at 10:00 a.m. The family requests that visiting hours be observed on Monday, August 11th from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. and again on Tuesday from 9:00 a.m. until the funeral service time. Rev. Mitch Williams will officiate the services and interment will be in Parklawn Memorial Gardens. Condolences and other information available online at www.bgthompsonfuneralhome.com Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home of Hammond.
