

Olivia Stewart Hutchinson

February 15, 1925 - August 20, 2017

Olivia peacefully went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday morning, August 20, 2017 at the young age of 92 surrounded by her loving family. She was a resident of Independence, LA. For much of her life she worked incredibly hard as a dairy farmer and worked at it as if working for the Lord. She enjoyed gardening, but her passion was ministry. She is survived by her daughters, Sharon Magliolo and husband Samuel, Rhoda Robertson and husband David; sister, Christine Herring and husband Donald; and brothers, Wilmer "Spunk" Stewart, Lawrence Stewart and wife Norma, Eddie "Push" Stewart and wife Janice, and Oscar "Johnny" Stewart. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Kimberly Henkel, Byron Magliolo and wife Cindy, Shana Hernandez and husband Ray, Tabitha Durbin and husband Dennis, David Robertson II and wife Mignon, Travis Hutchinson and wife Christy, and Brayden Hutchinson; great-grandchildren, Michael Trant Jr., Bradley, Daniel, Dalton Magliolo, Jessica Powell, Raven Causey, Sarah and Heather Henkel, Hunter and Olivia Hernandez, Jackson and Adley Durbin, Aubrey, Olivia, and Alexa Hutchinson, Orianna Howell, Michael Barnes, and Eli Noto; and her great-great-grandchild, Bryson Magliolo.

Olivia is preceded in death by her husband, Kermit Hutchinson; son, Keith Hutchinson; parents, Eldridge and Elva Stewart; grandchild, Lynee

Hutchinson; and siblings, William and Dewitt Stewart, Louise Travis, Ada Cox, Ellen Watts, and Helen Johnson.

“ I'm so sorry to hear Aunt Olivia passed away. I just heard today. I have many precious childhood memories of her and from my adulthood as well. My mother was "Little" Helen Johnson Easterbrook. When I came home, I would go see Aunt Olivia and visit our family cemetery section. She always had stories to tell me and I always left with a full heart and some sort of knickknack or something from her. I loved that lady bunches. May you RIP Aunt Olivia.....
Much love,
Elvie Easterbrook Sprague
