“ Jane was my friend & like a mom to me. I loved her as though she WAS my mom...wouldn't think twice about scolding me if she thought I needed it. She always could make me laugh....even when she was hurting. She's selfless and always put others above herself. But above all her faith in Jesus Christ was 1st & the most important thing. She was welcomed in heaven with open arms & has received her many many jewels in her crown. I will always think of her with a smile. Jane I will love & miss you always
