

Patricia "Pat" Carter Wolbers

December 27, 1935 - June 8, 2023

Pat passed away on Thursday, June 8, 2023 at the young age of 87. She was a resident of Holden, LA. Pat dedicated her life as a teacher and loved every minute of it. She was so full of life and was up for anything that could be considered fun. Pat loved line dancing and was ready to go dance even up until the very end. She was an extraordinary woman who loved her family fiercely, especially her grandkids. Pat was an honest and extremely open woman. She had many different talks with many people, and never left out the details. Pat never missed an opportunity to spend time with her family and was always ready to hit the town. She was never shy of adventure and made sure to drag her friends and family along. Pat was a remarkable lady that liked to shine, literally, and she left quite an impact on those who were lucky enough to know her. She will never be forgotten and deeply missed.

She is survived by her son, Donald C. Wolbers Jr. (Bonnie); grandchildren, Donna Boros (Chris), Donald Wolbers III (Tiffany), Felicia Nichols (Kenny), Ashley Carrier (Nick), Michael Wolbers, Jennifer Wolbers, Bonnie Fardoulis Lirette, Alex Fardoulis, Carlito Nichols, Christopher Fardoulis, Robert Fardoulis Jr.; great-grandchildren, Taylor, Josh, Alexis, James, Kimberly, Bryce, Neaveh, Amaya, Bently, Bowen, David, Abbi, Ryan, Kallan, Kera, Mia, Ray, Michael, Haley, Brynlee, Emma, Alina, Gavin, Hennessy, Aiden, Robert III, Shane, Amanda, Courtlyn, Kelsie; 6 great-great-grandchildren; daughters-in-law, Julie Ayme and Katherine "Kathy" Wolbers; and companion, Bill

Girdina Sr.

Pat is preceded in death by her husband, Donald C. Wolbers Sr., Ed Razza; son, David A. Wolbers; daughter, Lois C. Hinson; parents, Buford and Juanita Carter; and sisters, Hazel West and Connie Carter.
