“ *My friends and I met Patty on a sewing cruise in 2014. She was on the cruise alone having recently lost her traveling companion. We adopted her and she us. We have shared a long distance friendship ever since. In 2020 we shared our last quilting cruise. Patty came with a pouch she made for each of us. We sewed, ate, and played cards as the rest of the world dealt with COVID. I will remember her smile, her kindness, and the absolute love she had for her family.
