

Patrick Daniel Beltz

May 30, 1952 - January 31, 2019

Pat, age 66, passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 31, 2019. He provided for his family as a Chemical Operator for his given trade. Pat never met a stranger, along with his happy demeanor and his propensity for getting to know new people where ever he was. In his early years he was a talented scuba diver. Pat always loved traveling and eating new kinds of food, so much so that he was most probably one of the original 'Foodies'. He loved cooking food for friends and family, as well for old coworkers alongside his brother Paul. When he wasn't tending to his garden full of fruits and vegetables, he could be found with his greatest love, his family. Pat was a wonderful father, loving grandfather (oh, how he adored his granddaughters), and dear friend to many. He loved children so much, in his later years, he was constantly mistaken for Santa Claus by local children around town. In his spare time, he could be found looking up more information about his family through their genealogy. Pat is already deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. Pat leaves behind his loving daughter, Codi Beltz and her significant other Danny Finckbeiner; granddaughters, Iris Finckbeiner, and Lola Finckbeiner; brother, Paul Beltz; nephew, Devon Beltz and his wife Margaret and their son Benjamin; niece, Randi Beltz

Pat is preceded in death by his parents, Verna and Ray 'Bud' Beltz
