

Patsy Wood Dean

September 16, 1945 - May 12, 2008

A wonderful soldier of Christ, Patsy never allowed her pains and suffering to hinder her from serving her Lord and Master. Patsy's loving family is mourning for their loss but they know she is at great peace and shouting praises on the streets of gold. Anyone who had the privilege of knowing Patsy will sadly miss her.

Patsy passed away Monday, May 12th at Oschner Medical Center in Baton Rouge at the age of 62. She was a resident of Holden and a native of Woodville, MS. She was a self-employed Notary and had a career for many years as general office manager in administration with various car dealerships throughout this area.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Douglas Dean; four children and their spouses, Krystal and Joe Corio, Heather and Reggie Ethridge, Timothy and Sharon Dean, Heath and Chekereha Dean; 21 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Her parents, Henry and Vera Wood; 2 brothers, Clarence and J. K. Wood; 2 children, Kevin Grayson and Georgia Hughes preceded her in death.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral services from the chapel of Brandon G. “ Doug, Debbie, Heather, Tim, Heath,
I just today found that Pat had died. I am so sorry to hear about it. Although our relationship has been strained for awhile, I never forgot about her and I LOVED her very much. It is so true about no matter how she felt she was going to worship God. I pray that God comforts you all through this time of your life. Just keep on keeping on serving the Lord.##imported-begin##martha vaughn##imported-end##

“ Bro Dean,

Little did I know the first time I meet you and Sis Dean that you two would grow so dear to me and DeWayne. We loved her very much and feel the same about you. You know I read a email today that said live you life so that when you get out of bed satan shudders to know you are awake and it reminded me of Sis Dean so much. She is where we can only strive to get one day and she dont have to use that walker anymore she is shouting on streets of gold. Love ya.

“ Bro Dean,

Our heart felt thoughts and prayers will be with you for days to come as you feel the pain of losing your dear and loving wife Sis. Pat. The site of her walking the Isles at church with her walker will be in my memory for ever. We were blessed to have had her in Denham serving God.

With Love,

Sister Lisa and Bro. Alvin

Heather, My heart aches for you today and will for days to come knowing you have lost your Mom once again. She truly loved you. The last thing she said to me was that she was concerned about you.

Love you much,

Lisa

God in his mercy holds all the answers to our questions and one day we too will see Sis Pat as we reign with Christ for eternity.

Prayers go out for the entire family today and in the days to come for peace and comfort.

God bless each of you##imported-begin##Denise Short##imported-end##
