

Paul Douglas Purvis

February 17, 1957 - August 21, 2020

“ I met Mr. Paul at the store with my mom. She's blind and was waiting for me to get finished when this nice gentleman struck up conversation with her. They talked for a long time while I shopped. When I was done she told me that he got her contact info because he wanted to help her with her vision loss. The next day he had her meet him at Best Buy and proceeded to purchase all this high tech stuff for vision impaired folks like my mother. She was insistent that he not spend his money on her and he was just as insistent that she let him help her. In the end Mr. Paul won and my mother who has struggled to do list things because of her disability was now equipped with the latest and best available tech to assist her. He cried with us when we were saying how much we all appreciate what he did. He was truly a wonderful and generous man, the absolute most kind person I've ever met. I know his family is heartbroken over his loss. May God bless you and keep you always, Mr. Paul, fly high with angels and Godspeed

“ Prayers for the family. I knew Paul when he worked for the Office of Financial Institutions. Such an easy person to get along with and he will be missed. I am touched by the other messages of how much he helped other people.

“ Paul was definitely his own man and he always was. He loved life and liked to laugh, he was kindhearted and a giving person and would give you the shirt off his back. He was a good man and I saw how he stepped up for Trinity after we lost Butch and I know from talking with him that he loved every minute of it. When I lost both parents, my cousin, Paul was there and sat with us, just being there if we needed him and I will be forever grateful. When I lost Randy, it was Paul that said, "Jerri Faye, go home it is getting late and I will stay with Randy until the grace is covered". I did go home because I knew he would be there and that is one of the most special things he could have ever done for me. I loved his stories about his life and what he was and wasn't getting into. To know Paul, was to love Paul. Simple as that. God speed.

To Pam and Jesse and Trinity and all his nieces and nephews, I can not imagine the loss that you feel now, but know my prayers will continue for you all. I will pray for peace and understanding because we all need those things.

Jerri Faye
I can still hear him saying my name.

I love you, Paul!
