“ I have known Mr. Paul for many years - back when he owned the store in Holden. I would go in there often with my sweet Aunt Louise Hodges and he was always very kind to her.

In later years I became close friends with Dawn (even though I'm lots older) and had the chance to really get to know Mr. Paul, Mrs. Diane and the family. Mr. Paul was truly one of a kind. If you didn't know him well you may not have recognized and appreciated his humor.

If you were lucky enough to get to know hiim, then you surely enjoyed his quick wit and dry sense of humor.

Rest well Mr. Paul, your work is done. And don't worry, you taught your children and grandchildren well and they will take good care of your lovely wife.

Love and Blessings, Alicia Young Walters (Jones).
