“ Aunt Peggy was one of the most delightful people I have ever known in my over 70 years of this life. From that wonderful giggle to infectious broad smile and laugh she radiated joy and happiness to all around her. She was the source of many good childhood memories. When Uncle Donald got paid on Fridays she would load up the station wagon with not just her kids but nieces and nephews as well and it was off to the Chuck Wagon on Acadian Thruway in Baton Rouge. Even though it was the highest priced item on the menu it was those great pulley bone baskets for all. Aunt Peggy and Uncle Donald were great people so willing to share what they had with others. She is in a much better place now for I know first hand the devastating and exhausting effects of chemotherapy. I am sure she will find her "My Lands" in the sky as she is reunited with Mickie and Uncle Donald, whom she adored, in fact it has probably already happened.
