“ I met you when you asked me to woodburn on your Dad's cane for him for either his birthday or Father's day and we became instant friends, your smile is contagious and your sense of humor fit mine perfectly. I'm know you are pain free now but I will miss seeing that smile. Rest in paradise, my friend. ❤️

“ Your laugh was the most contagious laugh. You laughed, everyone followed. I can only imagine you laughing as you entered the Gates of Heaven & those waiting for you joining in. I still have my lap blanket you made for me when I was state side deployed in 2005. It's blue with smiley faces on it, how ironic is that? I use it all the time, has good memories & now it's even more special to me. Hope you get to sing a few songs with Elvis. Rest in Peace Penny .
