

Rev. Philip "PJ" Baker

March 2, 1948 - July 6, 2021

Rev. Philip "PJ" Baker spent a happy childhood in New Orleans near City Park where he enjoyed daily adventures with his siblings and neighborhood friends. When he was about 10 years old he had a spiritual experience that changed his life forever. From that day forward his life's journey became a search for a deeper understanding and relationship with God. Many have been impacted by his life and his journey and all are better for it. He will be missed by his wife, children, siblings, and extended family and many, many others.

He is survived by his loving wife, Dr. Linda LeBlanc Baker; son, Aaron Corbin Baker; daughter, Abi Corbin Baker; sisters, Mary Lynn Roberts (George), and Nancy Jo Hamburger (Paul); brothers, William Baker, Jr. (Jill), and Frank Baker (Jean); along with numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, William and Madeline Baker.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Our Daily Bread.

“ He was a great buddy. When I got married he came to the ceremony on his Harley Davidson motorcycle. He brought an extra helmet for me just in case.
