“ My deepest sympathy on your loss of Ramona. Our history with Mona is through her mother Mrs. Rose who worked for us at the Tic-Tock Shoppe. My husband Joseph and I were honored when Mona presented us with a plate from her mother's collection after Mrs. Rose's passing. We thanked Mona for her kind gesture, a memory I will treasure in my thoughts of her, Mrs. Rose and Tic-Tock.

Thank you Sharon. It has been 4 years since my husband Joseph's passing on September 6th. My life will never be the same without him. We had 22 years together and a beautiful love. He made sure I felt his love everyday. He passed from kidney failure and suffered a lot. I was his sole caregiver to the end and was with him when he took his last breath. Please keep me in your prayers as I will you and your family.

“ Susan and Terry, we are very sorry to hear about your mom passing away.

She was such a sweet person and even though it has been several years, we still remember her. May the Lord bless each of you at this time.
