

Randy Wayne Mansfield

September 26, 1963 - January 6, 2016

Age 52, Randy went home to be with his Lord and Savior on January 6, 2016; he was a longtime resident of Independence. Randy was always happy, giving and loving; he loved the outdoors and gardening at times. He was a hard worker and a skilled master carpenter. He met the love of his life, Angela Leonard and they married June 3, 1989; they combined they're families together and lived a wonderful life.

Randy is survived by his wife, Angela Leonard Mansfield; mother, Doretha Rodriguez Mansfield; sons, Nicholas Shane Mansfield; step-son, Christopher Brandon Leonard; sister, Donna Anthony and husband Kevin; brother, Bobby Mansfield and wife Christina "Tina"; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Randy is preceded in death by his father, Osby Bob Mansfield

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home on Saturday, January 9, 2016 with visiting beginning at 6:00 p.m. until the celebration of life service at 8:00 p.m.

“ So many of my childhood memories involle Angela and Randy. I always admired Angela's patience, wisdom and understanding. Randy's smile was contagious! When he walked in the room, the party started! He adored cutting up with kids! My son got off the school bus everyday and went straight to see if Randy was home. Not even letting me know that he was home from school btw. We'll never forget how he brightened our lives. We love you Randy!

“ Uncle Randy was such a great loving uncle. He was loud, happy, and always humorous . Every time I saw him he would holler "Hey heyyy Ju-layy" you could hear him from a mile away. He always had a smile on his face and was always happy to see me and my kids. He made sure to come down to our house to visit on the weekend. He has kicked ball around the yard with my daughter as well as roll around the floor playing cars with my son . When I was younger I remember him doing just the same with me and my cousins. Playing with us in the yard, throwing baseballs with us, and passing out hugs. I will miss Uncle Randy dearly and will cherish every happy memory I have of him. He will forever remain in my heart. He was taken from us far to soon but i know God has a plan much bigger than ours. Rest in Paradise Sweet Angel may your wings take you high.

“ My family had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Randy about 13 years. He was a great friend, my husband's best friend, more like a father figure. Our four kids loved him so much! The other day when he came by and my son was "working" on his truck and they were having such a fun time. He told Mr Randy that his truck wouldn't start cuz the truck needed new tires and it was old, lol. He always enjoyed talking with the kids. Really gonna miss him stopping by.
