

Randy Russell

January 4, 1957 - October 22, 2025

Randy left his earthly body and entered into the eternal Glory on October 22, 2025, after 68 well-lived years. Born in San Benito on January 4, 1957, he was a proud native Texan, and could only be found wearing cowboy boots from the time he began to walk. His family settled in Springfield, LA, where he spent the rest of his formative years. He met and married Carolyn (nee' Ott), his wife of 49.5 years in 1976; and they eventually made their home in Watson, LA. He was a service technician with the Xerox Corporation and Xerox Engineering Services before retiring. Randy enjoyed studying the Bible, being in nature, and his beloved Chihuahuas Dolly and Dixie. He was loyal, had a servant's heart, and was always quick to smile and offer a kind and gentle word. He was also quick to pull a prank! If you ever had a mechanical problem or needed help moving, he was always the first to volunteer.

Randy leaves to honor his memory his beloved wife, Carolyn Ott Russell; his children, Glenn Russell and Jennifer Escher (Roland); grandchildren, Aaron and Emma Escher, and bonus grandson, Chris Escher, as well as his girls, Emma Jo and Savannah Escher.

Preceding him in death is his mom, Valla Ada Stukes Russell; his dad, Virgil Miller Russell; and his fur baby, Chiqui.

Pallbearers will be Chris Escher, William Holmes, Kevin Jeane, Rodney

Pierce, Kent Quave, Robert Quave

Special thanks to his loving caregivers from St. Joseph Hospice.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to St. Jude Children's Hospital or St. Joseph Hospice the Carpenter House.

“ Praying for your family!! Never forgot all the memories in your home as a kid! I would always go home and tell my parents that Mr. Randy made "real bacon" for breakfast!! Never forget that. Such a sweet and caring man. Praying for God's comfort over you all until you meet again! Sending our love from Africa. Love, Denny, Angelina, and Breanna Johnson

“ He lived his life by example, not the spoken word. He loved his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He read his Bible daily. He loved his wife Carolyn, with all his heart. He had a special love and joy for Glenn, Jennifer, Aaron, and Emma. He loved having his family in close proximity. He loved his chihuahuas. A better father-in-law a man could never have.
