“ *It was a blessed moment to meet Raymond recently I think it was Thanksgiving. He reached his hand out and held my hand rather than shake my hand. It was a cherished and intimate moment I believe will occur once more. The first site of Terry, I knew Millville family was divine appointment. Thanks be to God his soul is resting in peace. 1 Thes. 4:13,14, Psalm 34:18 Isaiah 57:18, although I will not be attending services please know I remain united in Spirit and truly God is with us. “ Wow! I am at a total loss for words. Raymond and all the family and I go way back to the days when we were kids. He was my neighbor for many years. A very good friend to my brother Ricky. An awesome person to all those he knew and came in contact with. I have not had a lot of contact with the family lately but I know that Raymond was still that lovable man he was when he was a kid. I could go on and on but to sum up my feelings: He was a great person. Don't think he ever had an enemy. He will be sadly missed by his family and all those who knew him. Raymond: Rest In Peace. Lots of love from your old neighbor and friend.

It's been years since I saw Raymond but I remember when my son, Bennette and his son played baseball in Albany. He was a cheerful guy- the kind that makes a lasting impression. He was a great man.I'm sorry for the family.
