“ Raymond, our brother-in-law, never ceased to amaze us
We would like to share a few memories
We watched in awe, as he had the amazing ability to use Prov 23:7 “As a man thinketh so is he ..”
This mind set helped him deal with the adversities in life as well as his later in life health issues
He had vast knowledge about many things from theology to simple things
We called him frequently when we needed to know how to make something work
He was business savvy, he was detail-oriented, disciplined and organized, Even in his role as a chef, both in the preparation and the presentation He was a man of faith and “Fought the good fight.. “
2 Timothy 4:7
He was an inspiration to his dialysis friends and a recognized role model
He fought along with them for almost nine years never wavering In his faith and fight He fought his health crises through the grace of the Lord and with his caring, knowledgeable, wife by his side. He depended on her and wanted her by him He depended upon her and he would want us to know that during all his health problems that she fought for him and beside him
He will be greatly missed but his memories will be here

“ *Leona,
My heart breaks for you in your loss of Raymond. Knowing what I went through with losing Joseph, I prayed this day would never come for you. I prayed the two of you would have many more years together.
I will always treasure the times when the four of us went out to eat together; they were such good times. Joseph and I loved visiting with both of you at your home; we always felt we could relax there. The memory of our wedding there is especially dear to me, particularly how you and Raymond did so much to make our special day one that we would cherish always.
Both of you are what we considered true friends.
I love you and am praying for God to give you strength to endure your loss.*
