“ STRA was my rock. He could always tell me it was going to be ok and it was. He could sleep standing up. He was the greatest friend and if he loved you. He loved you hard. He had a heart that was way softer than his rough exterior. All he called friend were truly loved by Stra. ”

“ Richard aka Dawg, my Dog... I have so many good memories with you in them. It is hard to pick just one. They will forever be some of my favorite memories, for you were so much more than my friend. You were my brother, my compadre, my shoulder to cry on, my buddy to pick on, my late night let's have a real talk brother... You were you, and I loved you for it. You put on no airs, you never acted fake a day in your life. You were a rare gem, my friend, and you never even knew it. You knew how to be a real friend. I will never forget floating down the river with you, talking about life and how crazy shit is, and how things can change in the blink of an eye. And now, they've changed again. No more of your big wonderful hugs that always made me feel better, no more of that crazy cackle when you were really tickled about something, no more messages on facebook saying check out what I just posted, you're gonna love it... It was always something that I did love, you knew me too well... I will miss our talks the most though, cause we were two of a kind and not many people really get me. You really got me. I thank you for that, it meant more to me than you know. YOU meant more to me than you know.

I love you. Always will.

We are going to have so much to talk about when I see you again...

And I will see you again...

Till then...

Peace...

Your big bad mama...

“ Dawg was such a good friend and so much more. He's the one who taught me how to party but I dare to say at what age. Lol. He loved me like a sister and fought many people over me. He also loved my son Austin as if he was his own. He would come to the house when Austin was a baby and take him when I was asleep because he knew I didn't sleep well because of my heart and he would get him some coffee, put him in his bouncie, bring him outside with him for hours and just talk to him. He will so missed by so many even though he thought he wasn't loved by anybody. These many comments that so many are writing should show you Richard that you were more than loved. You were adored. R.I.p.my. friend, my brother. I love you!!!!

“ I remember many mornings when me and Rich would sit outside with a cup of coffee and watch the squirrels play and just talk. Rich was more than a good friend to me. Rich was my brother and he always was there when I needed him. He knew I was there when he needed me. All he had to do was say the word I was there. I going to miss you more than you know. I know you are with me in my heart. Rich I love you Bro. Your Shorty.

“ Cousin I am gonna miss you so much that it hurts. I trully cant believe your gone still seems so fake right now but yet I know it is real. So lost because i just talked to you on the book you were fussing at me lol. Man there will never be another you ever. You were the life of all party's an even when it wasnt a party you were the life to just be around. You were always so happy smiling an laughing an lots of jokes. Now you did get serious when needed but it was not enough that you stressed on. I remember me asking you dawg why u never stress bra? an you said Hey i do but the way i look at it is some things may change but most things want, so just live life everyday an what happens happens... I felt you on that. Love you were very blessed to have enjoyed life how you wanted an you encouraged me with alot. You touched many hearts an so many are broken now. But cuz i will see you again some day an we gonna have a blast just like we always did... I love you Dawg an you will never be forgotten ..
