“ To the McConnell family,

Our deepest sympathy goes out to you all. As I grew up with Rich and John, I have many fond memories of Mr. Rich. Watching football games, catching bullet passes in the street in 30 degree weather, and most of all his laugh just made me laugh. He treated me like one of the boys and I felt like part of the family.

Our prayers remain with you.##imported-begin##the bowser family##imported-end##

“ Ms. Dodie, Rich, and John - Our deepest sympanthy to your family. Rich and John - I always had the deepest respect for your dad and enjoyed his company. I don't think you knew this, but I went to my first LSU game with you and your dad. I remember it like it was yesterday. I'll also never forget how crazy our dad's would get at our basketball games. I'm pretty sure they were kicked out of at least one. They made a dangerous team.
Rich - It has been too long since we have talked. I apologize for not trying to get in touch with you sooner. Your family is in our prayers.##imported-begin##Justin Goar##imported-end##

“ Dear Dodie, Richard11,John, Ron,David, and family. Our heartfelt sympathies and condolences go out to you during your time of grief and sorrow for your loss. Richie was truly a wonderful person. I know this because I knew him my entire life.We played together as children on Cortez and Tulane. We did everything together from kindergarten through early adulthood.We had paper routes together. we slept at each others house.I knew him like a book. And he knew me just as well.We knew each other so well,we could finish one anothers sentences.He was best man at my wedding as I was at his.I will miss my close friend dearly.You and he will always be in our prayers. Love and God Bless you all. Michael and Nita.##imported-begin##Terence t Bordelon##imported-end##
