I spoke to Bob about 6 months ago and he was in good spirits and glad to hear from me. I worked with him for over 30 years. He was a brilliant man and helped me a great deal at work. I am indebted to him for all his help at work. I was fortunate that I got a chance to tell him of my appreciation before he left us. I told him so after I retired.

I hope his little Pomeranian dog Jazz is being taken care of. Jazz went with him most everywhere. He loved that little dog. Once he went into a convenience store to get cigarettes and left Jazz in the car with the air conditioning on. Jazz somehow locked him out of the car and he called I believe his brother to get his spare keys.
